

Maths Teacher – Appleford School

Location: Appleford School, Wiltshire

Contract: Full-time / Permanent

Start Date: September 2026

Appleford School is a co-educational, independent specialist school for pupils with dyslexia and associated learning needs, and we are looking for a dedicated and inspiring Maths Teacher to join our highly skilled team.

About Appleford School

Appleford School provides a warm, nurturing, and structured environment where pupils with specific learning differences— including dyslexia, dyscalculia, dyspraxia, and related needs—are supported to thrive. With small class sizes, specialist staff, and a strong therapeutic ethos, Appleford offers a highly personalised approach to learning that allows each pupil to reach their full potential.

The Role

We are seeking a teacher who can deliver engaging, accessible and differentiated Maths lessons tailored to a range of learning profiles. Key responsibilities include:

- Planning and delivering multisensory, evidence-based Maths lessons
- Adapting teaching approaches to meet individual pupil needs
- Supporting pupils to build confidence, resilience, and independence
- Working collaboratively with specialist staff, therapists, and the wider school team
- Contributing to the vibrant life of the Appleford School community

About You

We are looking for someone who is:

- Enthusiastic, patient, and committed to inclusive education
- Skilled at adapting teaching to individual learning styles
- Keen to develop specialist SEN knowledge and practice

Qualifications in Dyslexia and/or Dyscalculia (e.g., Level 5 or Level 7 SpLD qualifications) would be highly advantageous, although training opportunities may be available for the right candidate.

Why Join Appleford School?

- Inspirational staff and a supportive, collaborative environment
- Opportunities for further training and development in SEN and SpLD
- Small class sizes and excellent resources

- A chance to make a real and lasting difference in pupils' lives

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The successful applicant will be required to undergo an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check and all relevant pre-employment checks.
